In order to boost sales, CarMax is considering offering car loans to customers that the dealership itself will finance. To be eligible for a loan, customers must undergo a complete credit check (which we assume to be accurate). The credit check rates potential car buyers on a scale of 0 to 100, where 0 corresponds to a 0% chance of paying off the loan and 100 corresponds to a 100% chance of paying the loan in full. Each loan only lasts

Why CarMax's Hidden Advantage Could Backfire -- The Motley ...

The rate I was quoted on a 5 year loan was 10.99% and a 6 year loan was 12.9%. This was with a 90% LTV from the Kelly Retail value on the used car I was purchasing, which as I understand it is the standard now days for banks to loan on a used car. Low and behold, when I got home I checked my credit union, SDCCU, and their rate was only 6.5% on a 5 year loan @ 90%LTV. So, in short,
