carnival and the formation pdf

By transnation, Scher refers to the symbolic aspects of carnival that are "commodified" as a kind of economic capital of identity in both a Trinidadian and Brooklyn setting. That is, Trinidadians create their national identity in carnival and take that "nationality" with them through performance of carnival in Brooklyn. Carnival becomes a way of continuing the sense of homeland away from home. Thus, Trinidadian creole identity has as many voices as there are interpretations of that identity.
